Meeting Venue

Faculty House

64 Morningside Dr, New York, NY 10027

For one hundred years, Faculty House has provided an elegant space for academic and philosophical discourse, meetings, seminars, conferences, banquets and social events of all scales on the beautiful Morningside Heights campus of Columbia University. As the first event venue in New York to be LEED Gold certified, it maximizes sustainability while providing a welcoming experience.

Columbia University

Columbia University, originally established in 1754 as King's College, is one of the world's most important centers of research and at the same time a distinctive learning environment that seeks to link its research and teaching to the vast resources of New York City. CU Irving Medical Center is home to four colleges that provide global leadership in scientific research, health and medical education, and patient care. Laboratory medicine is at the core of these pursuits.

New York City

This diverse metropolis is the most populous city in the United States and has significant global influence as the home of the United Nations and Wall Street. It encompasses many colleges, universities, and conservatories, including Columbia University in Upper Manhattan. The city is known for iconic landmarks such as the Statue of Liberty, Empire State Building, and Central Park. Awaiting visitors are an amazing variety of dining experiences, upscale shops, theaters (on and off Broadway), music and dance venues, and museums. Come join ACLPS in the "Big Apple."
