

An aerial photograph of the Columbia University campus in New York City. The image shows a large green lawn in the center, flanked by red brick walkways and paved areas. In the background, a grand neoclassical building with a portico of columns is visible, with the names of ancient Greek and Roman authors inscribed above the entrance. The foreground features a large paved plaza with a repeating geometric pattern of red and white bricks, and two ornate fountains on either side. Numerous people are seen walking and sitting on the plaza. The sky is clear and blue. The text 'COLUMBIA CONFERENCE HOUSING' is overlaid in large, white, sans-serif capital letters across the center of the image.
